Faith and Development

Mid-week, I headed over to the State Department where I was joined by USAID Administrator Rajiv Shah and Assistant Administrator for Democracy, Conflict & Humanitarian Assistance Nancy Lindborg. Together USAID welcomed and talked to a group of pastors convened by Bread for the World. The group had just returned from a multi-country trip to Africa and it was a great chance to talk about the Feed the Future Initiative and what they saw on their visit.

With our eye on Africa, Administrator Shah then spoke at an Africa gathering event that was sponsored by Senators James Inhofe and John Boozman as part of the National Prayer Breakfast. I was moved to hear Administrator Shah's response about why he chose this line of work.
